

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

ST. THOMAS MORE COLLEGE,
PRAIRIE CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF UKRAINIAN HERITAGE
THE PETRO JACYK POST-DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN UKRAINIAN STUDIES

Initiated in 2021, the Fellowship has been created to support Ukrainian Studies at the University of Saskatchewan.

The Petro Jacyk Post-Doctoral Fellowship is open to recently awarded PhDs who would be involved in both research and teaching capacities.

The Fellow will spend most of the Fellowship period at the University of Saskatchewan, based at the Prairie Centre for the Study of Ukrainian Heritage and co-hosted with the Department of Political Studies or the Department of History.

The Jacyk Fellow is required to teach two half-courses: the first being a core course within a discipline (Political Studies or History) and another on Ukraine (Political Studies or History). The candidate is also expected to continue their research on Ukrainian subject matter with a view to publication and participate in the program planning and activities of Prairie Centre for the Study of Ukrainian Studies (PCUH) at St. Thomas More College. This will include the organization of a workshop or conference in the area of her/his research.
